RECIPROCAL VISITING RIGHTS

To whom it may concern at New Zealand Football Incorporated,

Due to the changes in the Sale and Supply of Alcohol Act 2012 our club would formally like to offer "Reciprocal Visiting Rights" to members and guests of all affiliated football clubs that fall under the New Zealand Football Incorporated authority.

This means that registered club members on New Zealand Football's GoalNet Database and their guests will be able to enter and use our clubhouse facilities throughout the year, including purchasing and consuming alcohol on club premises. The purpose of the visit can be, local competition between clubs, Federation sanctioned competitions and all competitions under the control of New Zealand Football Incorporated.

This letter is to formalise an agreement between all affiliated football clubs to New Zealand Football Incorporated and will ensure that we don't breach the Sale and Supply of Alcohol Act 2012.

Below is a copy of the relevant section under the act for your reference.
